Celebrate the opening of Murnalung Park

There is something for everyone to enjoy at the new Murnalung Park in the heart of the Flemington precinct.

The park was named 'Murnalung' by Wurundjeri Woi Wurrung Elders, which means 'bee'. And it's going to be a hive of activity.

There are playgrounds and nature play zones for the children as well as grassed picnic areas. There is also outdoor exercise equipment, cycling and walking paths and seating areas.

The Winter Park Warming is our way to thank the local community for your patience and understanding while we revitalise the Flemington precinct.

Keep your eye out for details on the event which we will share on posters around the precinct and on our website in the coming weeks.

Come and join us for an after-school Winter Park Warming event
